

I think no person or company should own more than 10% of the broadcast airways, this limits the variety of ideas we can hear on one subject, and does not allow other opinions. This is very scary to allow this to happen, the airways belongs to the public, and cannot be owned by one company or person. thank you